Parameters in the Scheme of Assessment

1. The technical quality/ integrity of the abstract/ paper

2. The abstract/ paper which is to be presented is based on a research funded by the NSF.

3. The abstract/ paper is accepted for
    - Keynote address
    - Invited lecture
    - Oral presentation
    - Poster presentation

4. List of publications in the conference proceedings within last five years

5. Publications in indexed journals within last five years

6. No. of published articles in national/ international peer reviewed journals

7. Having ongoing research funded by sources
    - Principal Investigator
    - Co-investigator (in certain cases majority of project research work is supervised/ done by the co-investigator)
    - Research Scientist
    - Research Student
    - Collaborator

8. Receiving partial sponsorship to cover expense.

9. Affiliation to NSF

    - Having Publications in JNSF
    - Being a NSF Committee member/ reviewers/ or given his/ her contribution to any other NSF task
    - Having ongoing research funded by the NSF